

Pickle People's Organs

(a short extract from a Bach Toccata)

ALL What's that?

EMBALMER 1 It's an organ!

ALL PICKLE IT!

EMBALMERS What do we all do all day? Pickle people's organs.
Ready for the afterlife, in these jars we store them.
Cut them out, all intact, pickle them and put them back.
What do we all do all day? Pickle people's organs.

'Cause we're all embalmers and we'd all just like to say,
It's not disgusting, no, 'cause they're all dead anyway.

(a short extract from 'Oh, I Do Like To Be Beside The Seaside')

ALL What's that?

EMBALMER 2 It's an organ!

ALL PICKLE IT!

EMBALMERS What do we all do all day? Pickle people's organs.
Ready for the afterlife, in these jars we store them.
If you're bad and we can tell, then we'll pickle you as well.
What do we all do all day? Pickle people's organs.

No we're not bananas, and we'd all just like to say,
It's not disgusting, no, 'cause they're all dead anyway.

(a short extract from 'The Wedding March')

ALL What's that?

EMBALMER3 It's an organ!

ALL PICKLE IT!
