

Coloured in Names

At the beginning of the year children each go onto computer, and select outline font, of their choice as long as it is readable, then print out and colour into different colours accordingly. If colouring is going to be difficult, they could be taught how to flood fill in a graphics program.

E.g.

Pennie

Pennie

Pennie

Pennie