

Colour the underlined words, using the following colours:

- Names – RED
- Adjectives - YELLOW
- Verbs (actions) – GREEN
- Adverbs – BLUE

Write the following sentences in your book, changing the underlined word, to change the meaning of the sentence:

1. Thank you for responding so quickly to my request for Nara padlocks.
2. As you know, security in Tomahna has become an important issue of late.
3. Perhaps I am overreacting, as Catherine suggests, but the idea that someone may have been sneaking into my study, reading all of my journals, disturbs me.
4. I've come to realize how delicate the link is to my worlds.
5. I've never been able to repair those burned Books, to link to each Age and find out if the inhabitants survived.
6. The padlocks won't change that situation, but they should ease my fear of trespassers considerably.