

Thank you for looking at our preview resources.
We hope that they are useful to you.

www.teachingpacks.co.uk

Join us today
to download thousands of resources from our popular Teaching Packs!

“I have been teaching for 18 years in the primary sector and I look for good quality, engaging resources that are useful for the children and aid their learning journey –
this is what you get from Teaching Packs every time.”

Dawn, Primary Teacher, UK

Misspelling Spotters!

Can you spot and highlight all twelve spelling mistakes in the text below?

Try competing with a friend to see who will be the first to find them all!

Centre Court Magic

Today was the big day. I got to be a ball girl at the Wimbledon finull, right on Centre Cort, and my heart was thumping like a bouncing tenniss ball. The crowd cheered so loudly that it felt like the whole stadiem was shaking. I kept reminding myself to stay focused, sprint fast, and scoop up the balls smoothly.

The players were amazing. Serena Starling was surving first, and her ace zoomed past Max Thunderbolt before he even blinked. I had to dash forward to collect the ball, then freeze like a statue so I didn't distract anyone. Sometimes I could feel the breeze from the ball as it whooshed past me.

At one point, Max hit a huge smash and the ball bownced right near my feet. I grabbed it quickly and rolled it down the line to the other ball girl, just like we practised. The ralley before that had gone on forever, with vollys, drop shots, and a brilliant lobb that made the crowd gasp. It felt like watching fireworks made of tennis.

When Serena won the final match poynt, the stadium exploded with cheers. I felt proud, tired, and a little bit sparkly inside, like I'd been part of something magical. I can't wait to do it again one day.

Spell the words correctly in the table below.

Misspelling Spotters!

Can you spot and highlight all twelve spelling mistakes in the text below?
Try competing with a friend to see who will be the first to find them all!

Centre Court Magic

Today was the big day. I got to be a ball girl at the Wimbledon finull, right on Centre Cort, and my heart was thumping like a bouncing tenniss ball. The crowd cheered so loudly that it felt like the whole stadiem was shaking. I kept reminding myself to stay focused, sprint fast, and scoop up the balls smoothly.

The playyers were amazing. Serena Starling was surving first, and her ace zoomed past Max Thunderbolt before he even blinked. I had to dash forward to collect the ball, then freeze like a statue so I didn't distract anyone. Sometimes I could feel the breeze from the ball as it whooshed past me.

At one point, Max hit a huge smash and the ball bownced right near my feet. I grabbed it quickly and rolled it down the line to the other ball girl, just like we practised. The ralley before that had gone on forever, with vollys, drop shots, and a brilliant lobb that made the crowd gasp. It felt like watching fireworks made of tennis.

When Serena won the final match poynt, the stadium exploded with cheers. I felt proud, tired, and a little bit sparkly inside, like I'd been part of something magical. I can't wait to do it again one day.

Spell the words correctly in the table below.

final	Court	tennis
stadium	players	serving
forward	bounced	rally
volleys	lob	point

