

Is this the answer? Long swords and axes.	The Next Question... What were Viking passenger and cargo ships called?	Is this the answer? Knorrs.	The Next Question... What colour were Viking carrots?
Is this the answer? Dark Purple.	The Next Question... Why might Viking sailors release ravens?	Is this the answer? Because the birds would fly to land so they would follow.	The Next Question... Which meal did Vikings usually skip?
Is this the answer? Lunch.	The Next Question... What was the sail on a Viking ship made of?	Is this the answer? Woven wool.	The Next Question... How did Viking men show off?
Is this the answer? By running along the side of a ship, jumping from one oar to the next.	The Next Question... How many Viking longships landed in the first Viking raid on England in AD 787?	Is this the answer? Three.	The Next Question... How fast could a Viking ship sail?

Is this the answer? About 10 miles per hour.	The Next Question... What did Vikings give babies to protect them from evil spirits and sickness?	Is this the answer? Little Thor's hammer charms.	The Next Question... How did Vikings light fires?
Is this the answer? By striking a piece of iron against a flint.	The Next Question... Which Irish city did the Vikings found?	Is this the answer? Dublin.	The Next Question... Why did Vikings rebuild their houses every 20 years?
Is this the answer? The wood rotted.	The Next Question... How did Vikings use cow or horse bones tied to their feet?	Is this the answer? As ice skates.	The Next Question... Where did most Vikings live?
Is this the answer? On farms.	The Next Question... What did Viking women use to make brooches?	Is this the answer? Beads.	The Next Question... Who was Odin?

Is this the answer? The ruler of the gods.	The Next Question... What did the English invaders call the Vikings?	Is this the answer? Danes.	The Next Question... What was 'wattle' used for?
Is this the answer? To build the walls of Viking houses.	The Next Question... How many Vikings could sail on a longship?	Is this the answer? Between 40 and 60.	The Next Question... What was often painted blue or red?
Is this the answer? Viking shoes.	The Next Question... How long did the Vikings rule the north of Scotland for?	Is this the answer? 500 years.	The Next Question... What does the word 'Viking' mean?
Is this the answer? A pirate raid.	The Next Question... What is the 'Thing'?	Is this the answer? A meeting where Vikings met to discuss the law.	The Next Question... What did the god Thor rule?

Is this the answer? The skies, storms and thunder.	The Next Question... What did the Vikings call the city of York after they captured it?	Is this the answer? Jorvik.	The Next Question... What is 'hnefatafl'?
Is this the answer? A popular Viking board game.	The Next Question... Where did Vikings think they would go to if they died in battle?	Is this the answer? Valhalla.	The Next Question... Who beat the Viking army in battle in AD 878?
Is this the answer? The English king, Alfred the Great.	The Next Question... What happened to old horses in Viking times?	Is this the answer? They were eaten.	The Next Question... When was the Viking Age?
Is this the answer? Between about AD700 and 1100.	The Next Question... Who was the last Viking king of Jorvik?	Is this the answer? Eric Bloodaxe.	The Next Question... What weapons did a Viking use?