

Muddled up story

Stick man had lots of adventures. Can you put the story into order. Write each number in the small square.

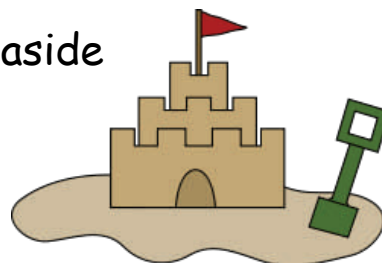

Stick man is very lost. He needs a map home!

Stick man is lost. Stick man needs a map to help him find his way home. Can you draw him a map to help him? He knows some of the places, but you need to add all the other details he needs to get home.

His tree home.

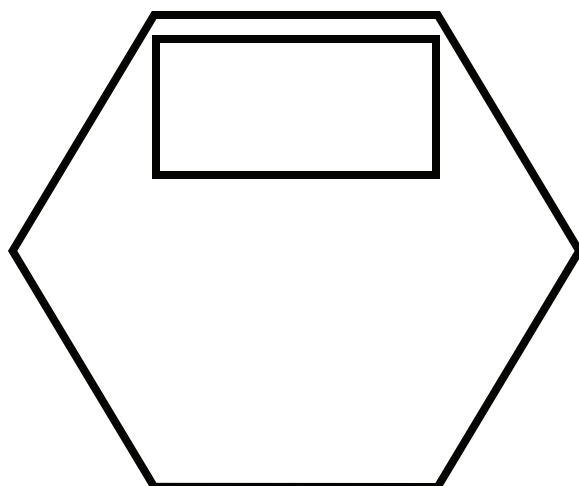

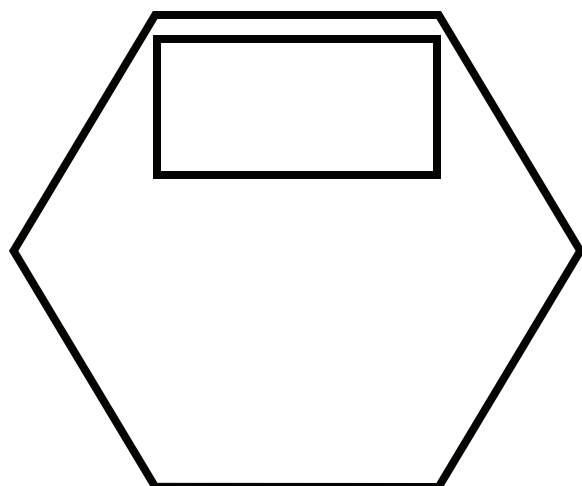

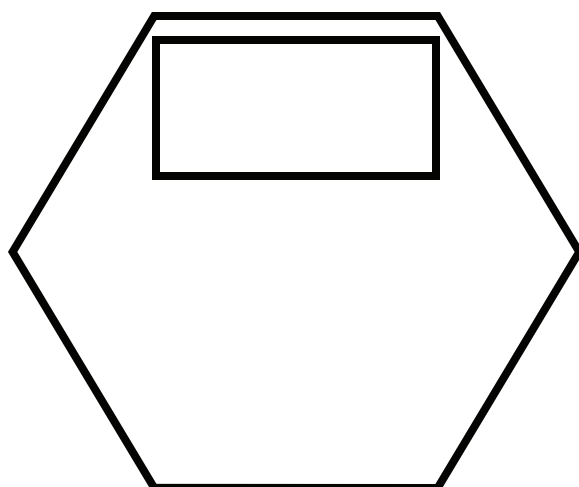

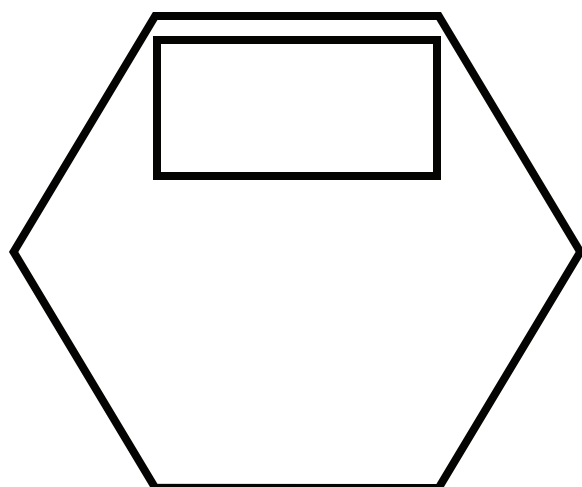

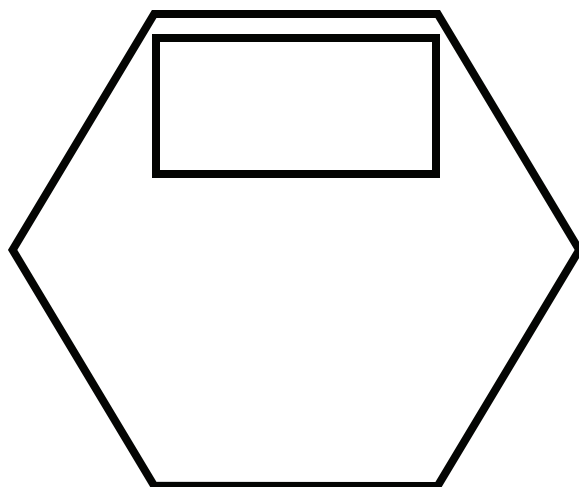

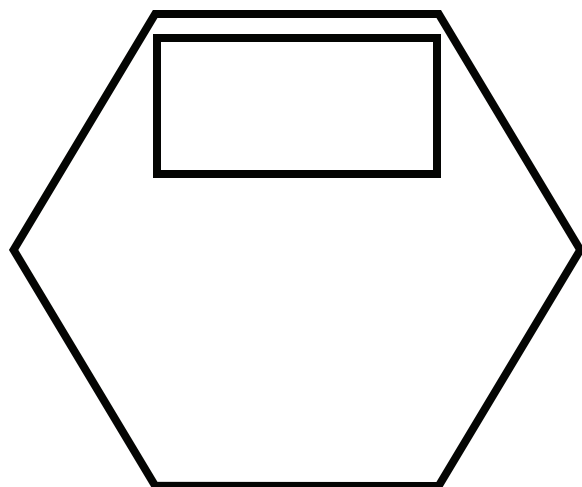

Seaside

Stick man was very useful

When you read about Stick Man, you see he was used in lots of different ways. Can you find six different ways he was used?

Draw and write down the six different ways he was useful.

Red hat: Focusing on emotions and feelings.

How is Stick Man feeling now?

Look at the different parts of the Stick Man story and think about how he is feeling in each part of his story.

Start of the story

Dog put on his lead.

Fetch!

Pooch Sticks

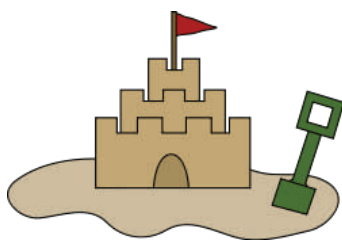

Swan nest

Empty nest

At the beach

The snowman

Firewood

The end of the story

Red hat: Focusing on emotions and feelings.

Stick Mans Feeling Chart

Stick Man's feelings go up and down in this story. You need to think about how happy he is in each picture. Score him from 1 to 10 in happiness (10 is very happy, 0 is very sad).

Visit <http://www.Free-Guided-Reading.com> for more Thinking Hat resources!

Red hat: Focusing on emotions and feelings.

How did Stick Man feel?

Stick Man felt all sorts of feelings. Can you find the places in the book where he felt different feelings? Draw the picture and write about it.

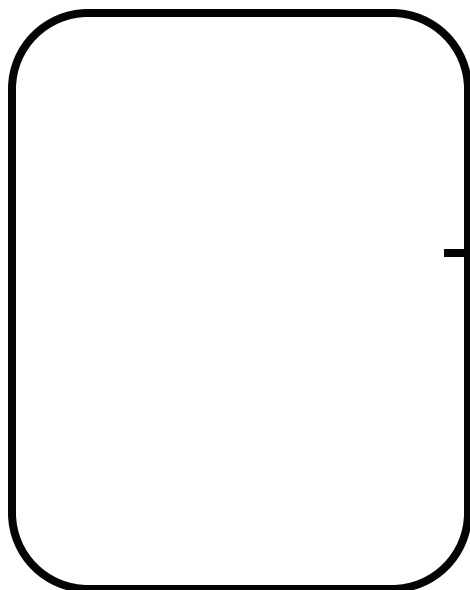

Happy

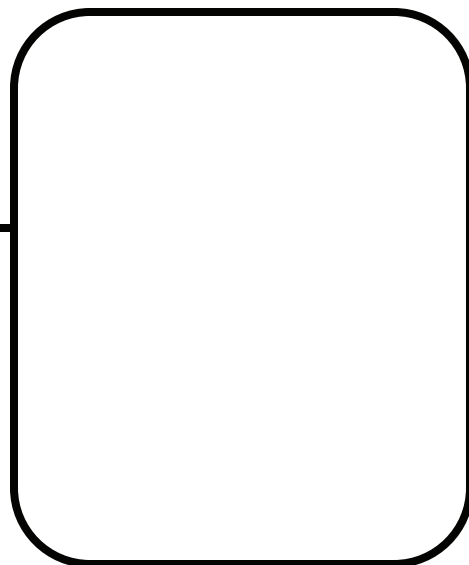

Lonely

Scared

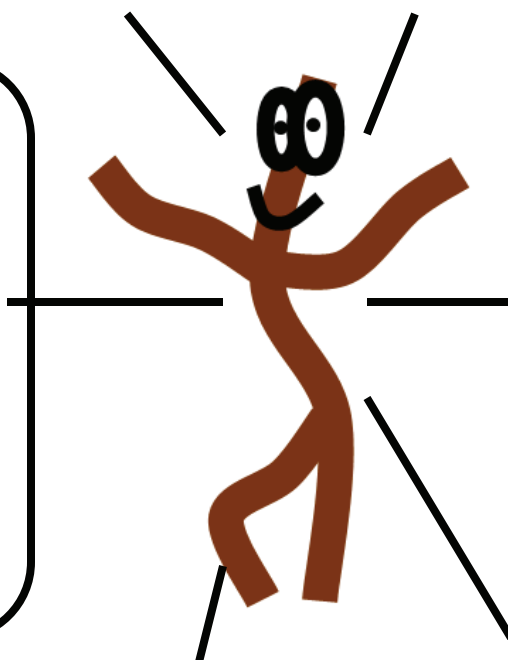

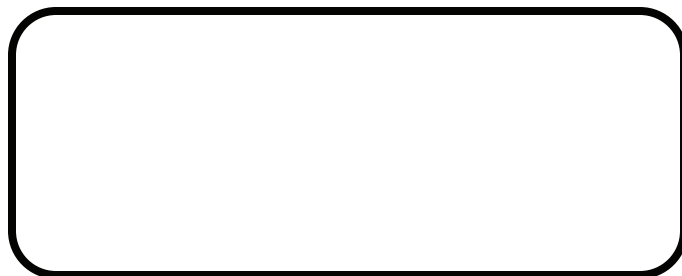

Angry

Excited

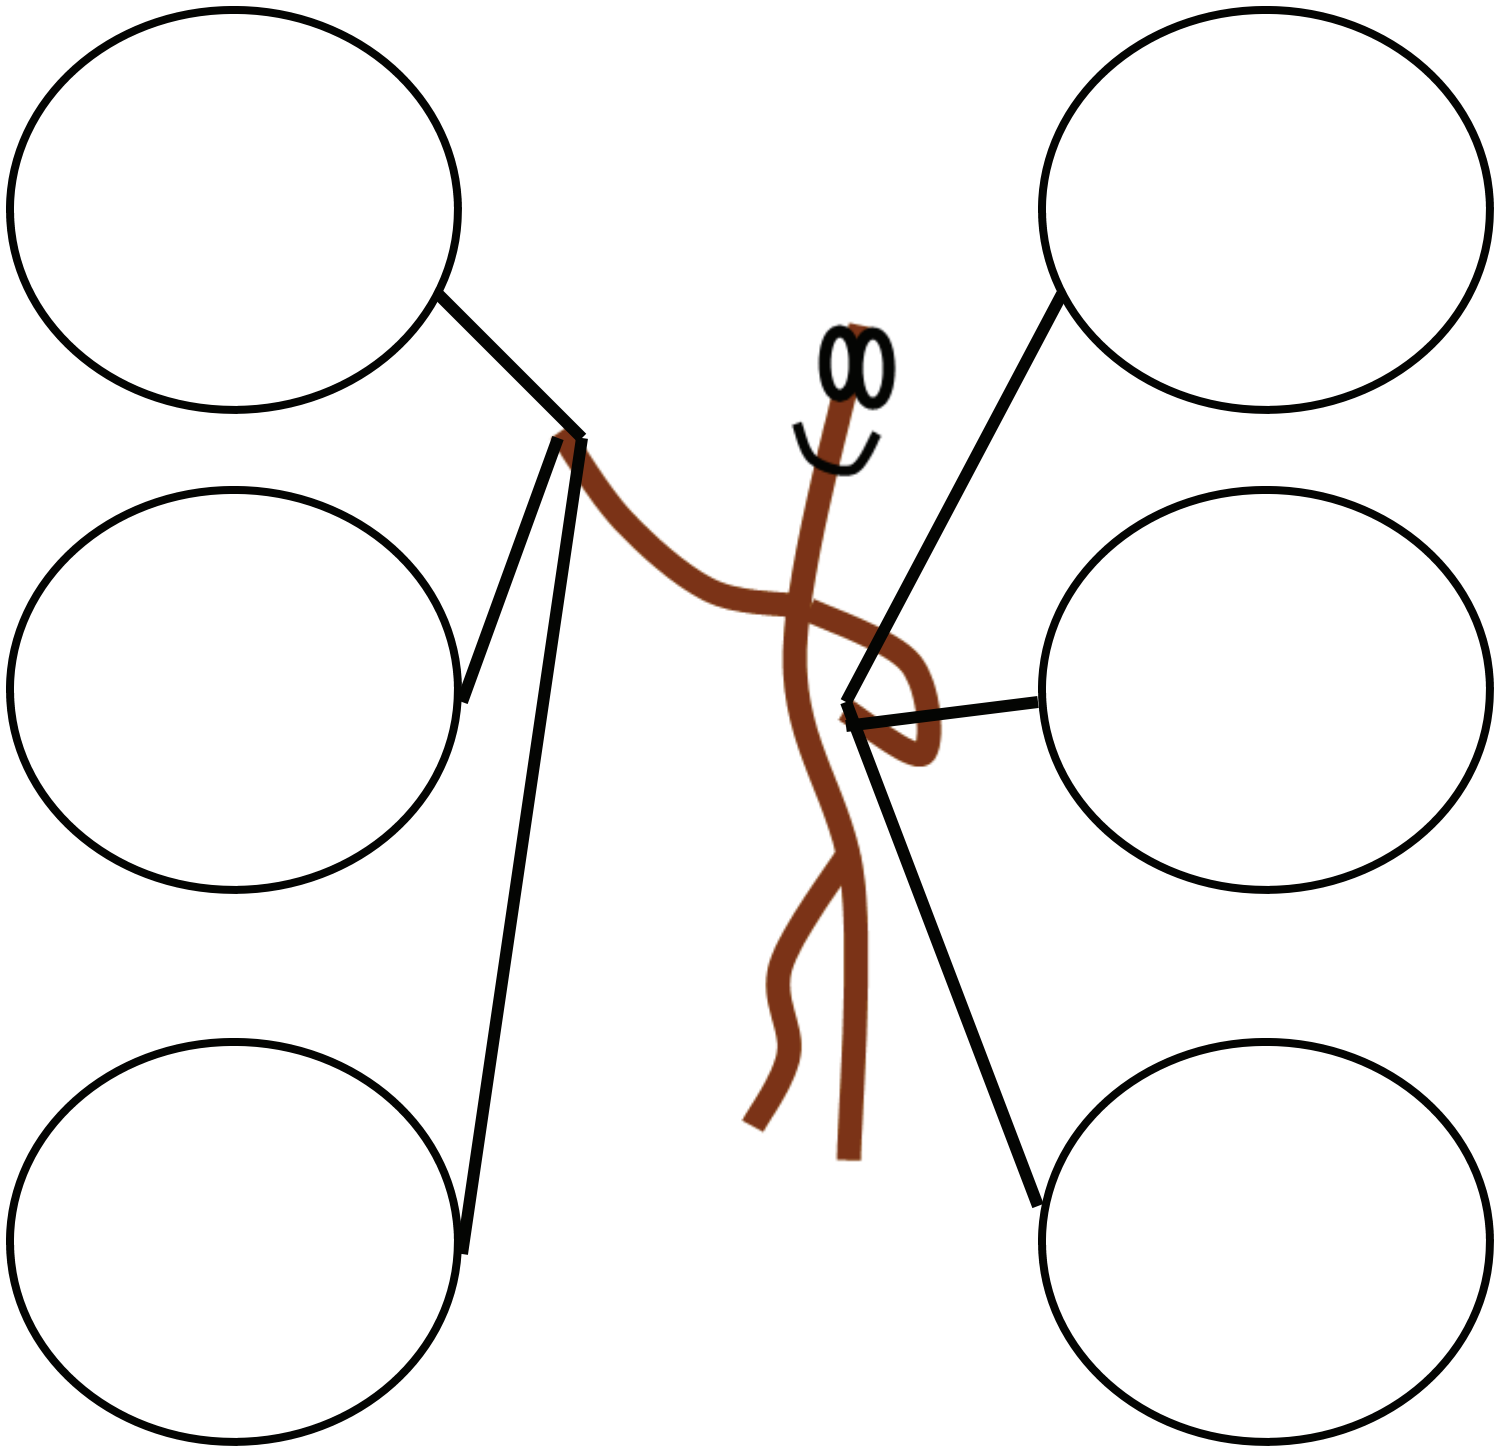

Sad

Yellow Hat Thinking: What are the nice and positive things in the story?

Stick Man is nice—What do you like about him?

Stick Man is a nice stick. What do you like about him? Write the answers in each of Stick Man's balloons.

Yellow Hat Thinking: What are the nice and positive things in the story?

Stick Man is a wonderful story. What is the best bit?

This book is full of Stick Man's great adventures. What was the best part of the story? Draw this part of the story in the frame.

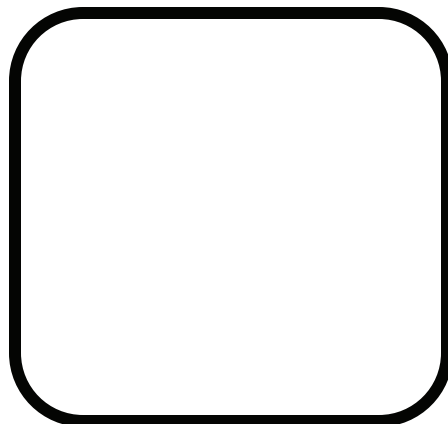

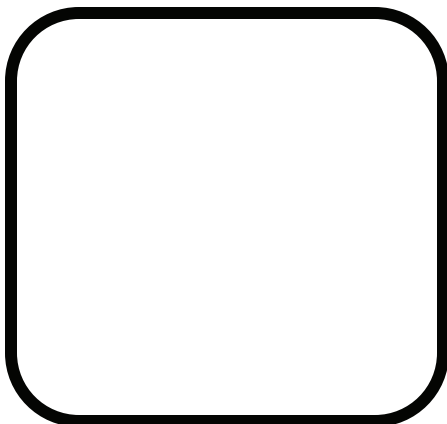

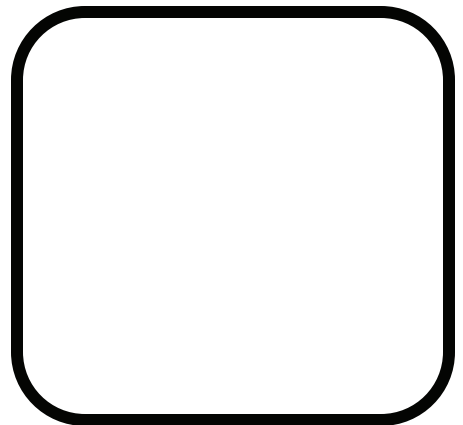

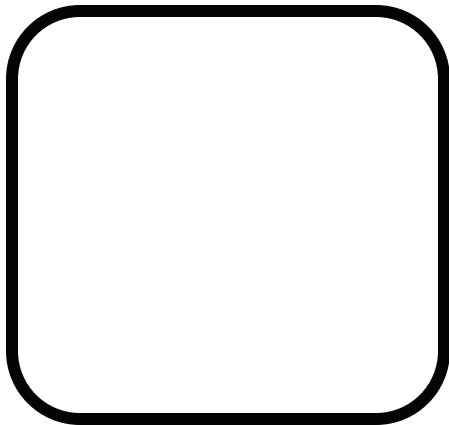

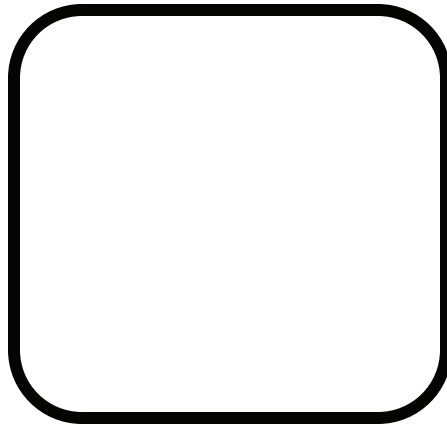

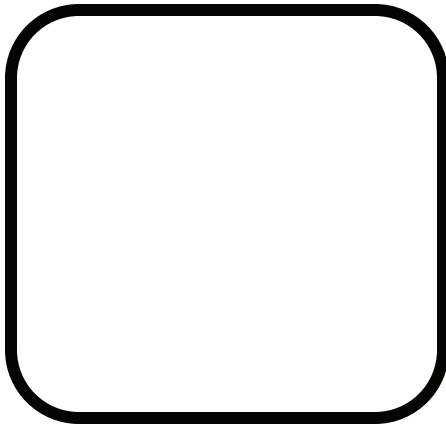

Write why was this the best part of the story.

Visit <http://www.Free-Guided-Reading.com> for more Thinking Hat resources!

Yellow Hat Thinking: What are the nice and positive things in the story?

What are the good things in this story?

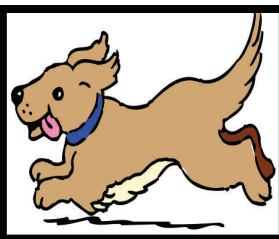

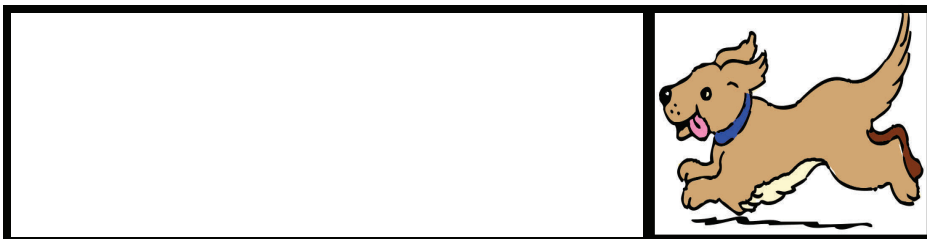

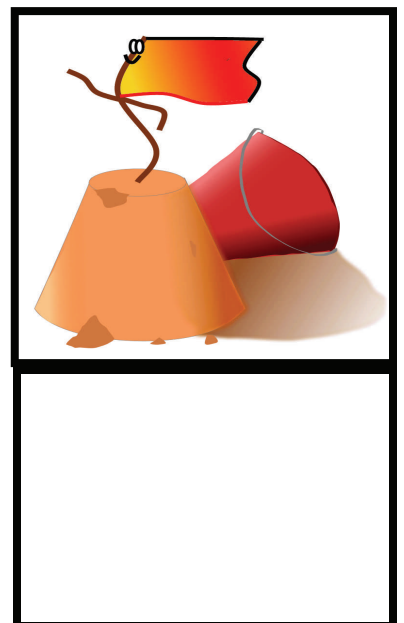

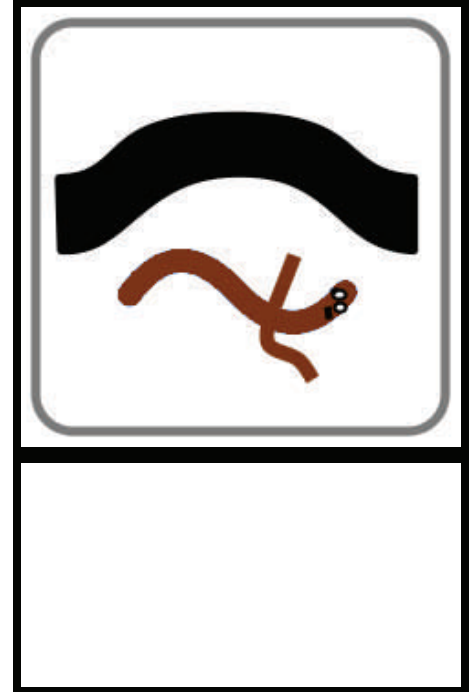

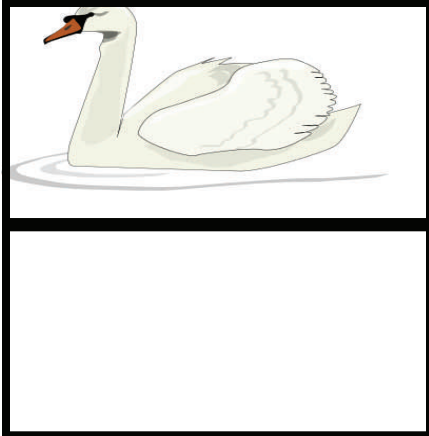

Look through this book and find six good or positive things you can write about. Think about what made you happy in this story? Write your ideas in each of the squares.

Black Hat Thinking: What are the risks or problems in this story?

Describe Stick Man's Six Big Problems

Stick Man Had lots of different problems to solve as he tried to find his way home. Can you remember them all? Describe each of his problems in the box next to the correct picture.

Visit <http://www.Free-Guided-Reading.com> for more Thinking Hat resources!

Black Hat Thinking: What are the risks or problems in this story?

Describe Stick Man's Six Big Problems

Stick Man's journey was very dangerous. How could things have gone worse? What were the dangers Stick Man could have faced?

The dog could have buried him like a bone.

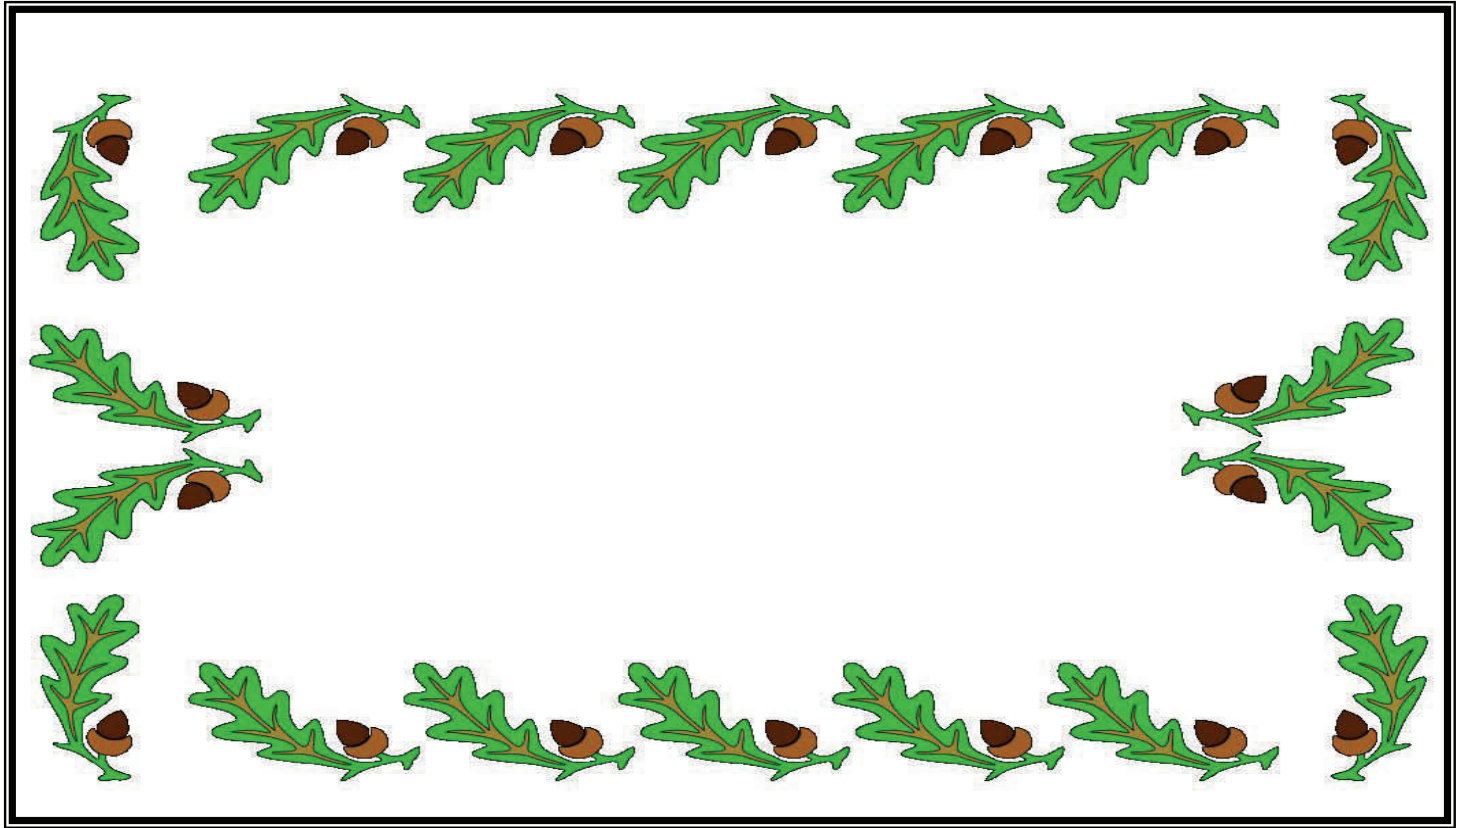

Visit <http://www.Free-Guided-Reading.com> for more Thinking Hat resources!

Black Hat Thinking: What are the risks or problems in this story?

What was Stick Man's biggest problem?

Stick Man had problem after problem. What do you think his biggest problem was?

Draw Stick Man and his big problem.

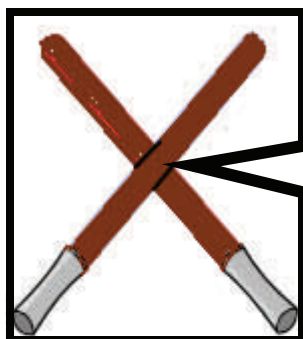

Describe why this was his biggest problem.

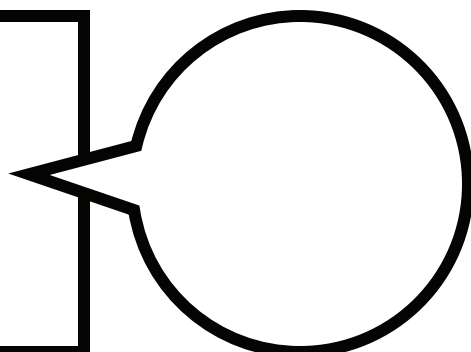

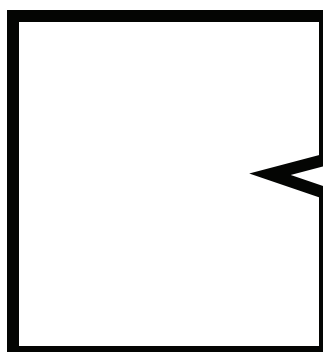

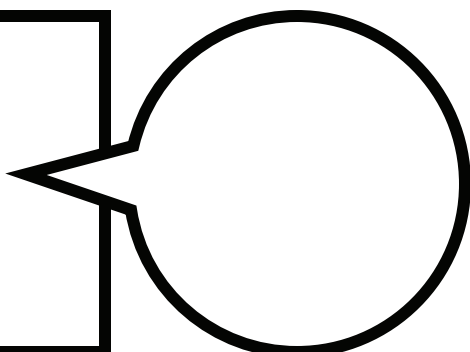

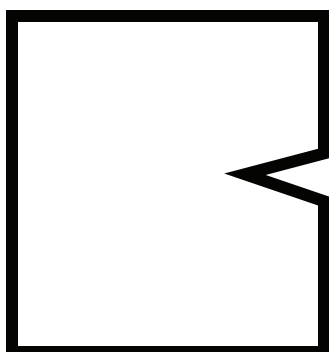

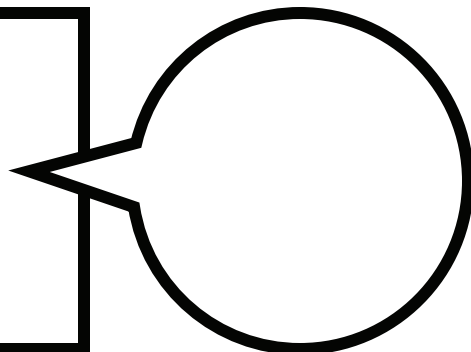

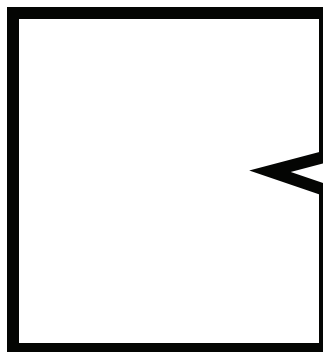

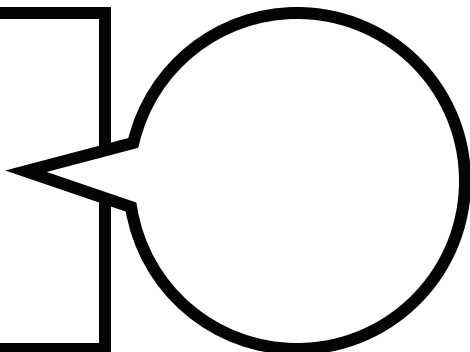

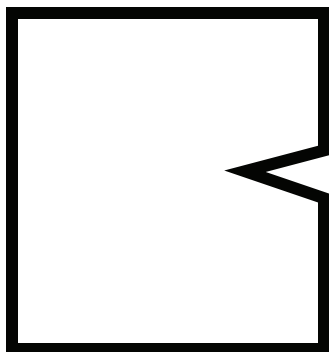

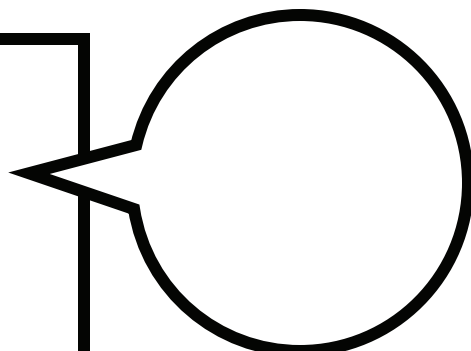

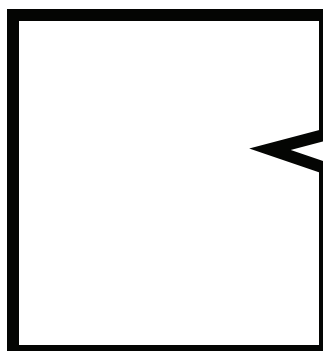

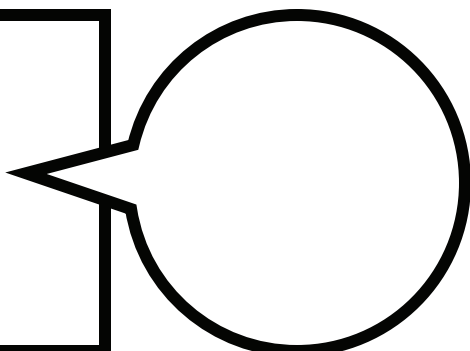

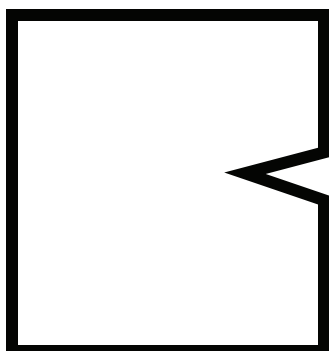

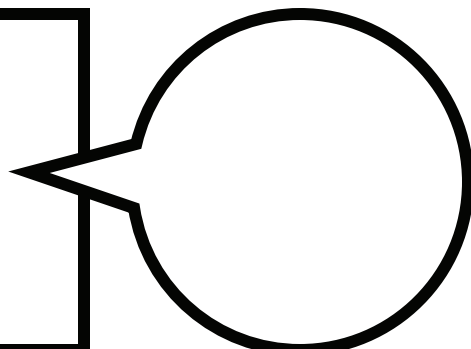

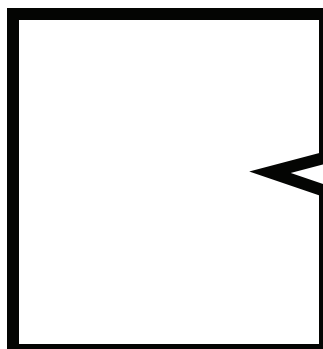

How many different ways can you use Stick Man?

Stick Man is very useful. How many different ways could you use him?

Draw him doing his new job and write what he is doing.

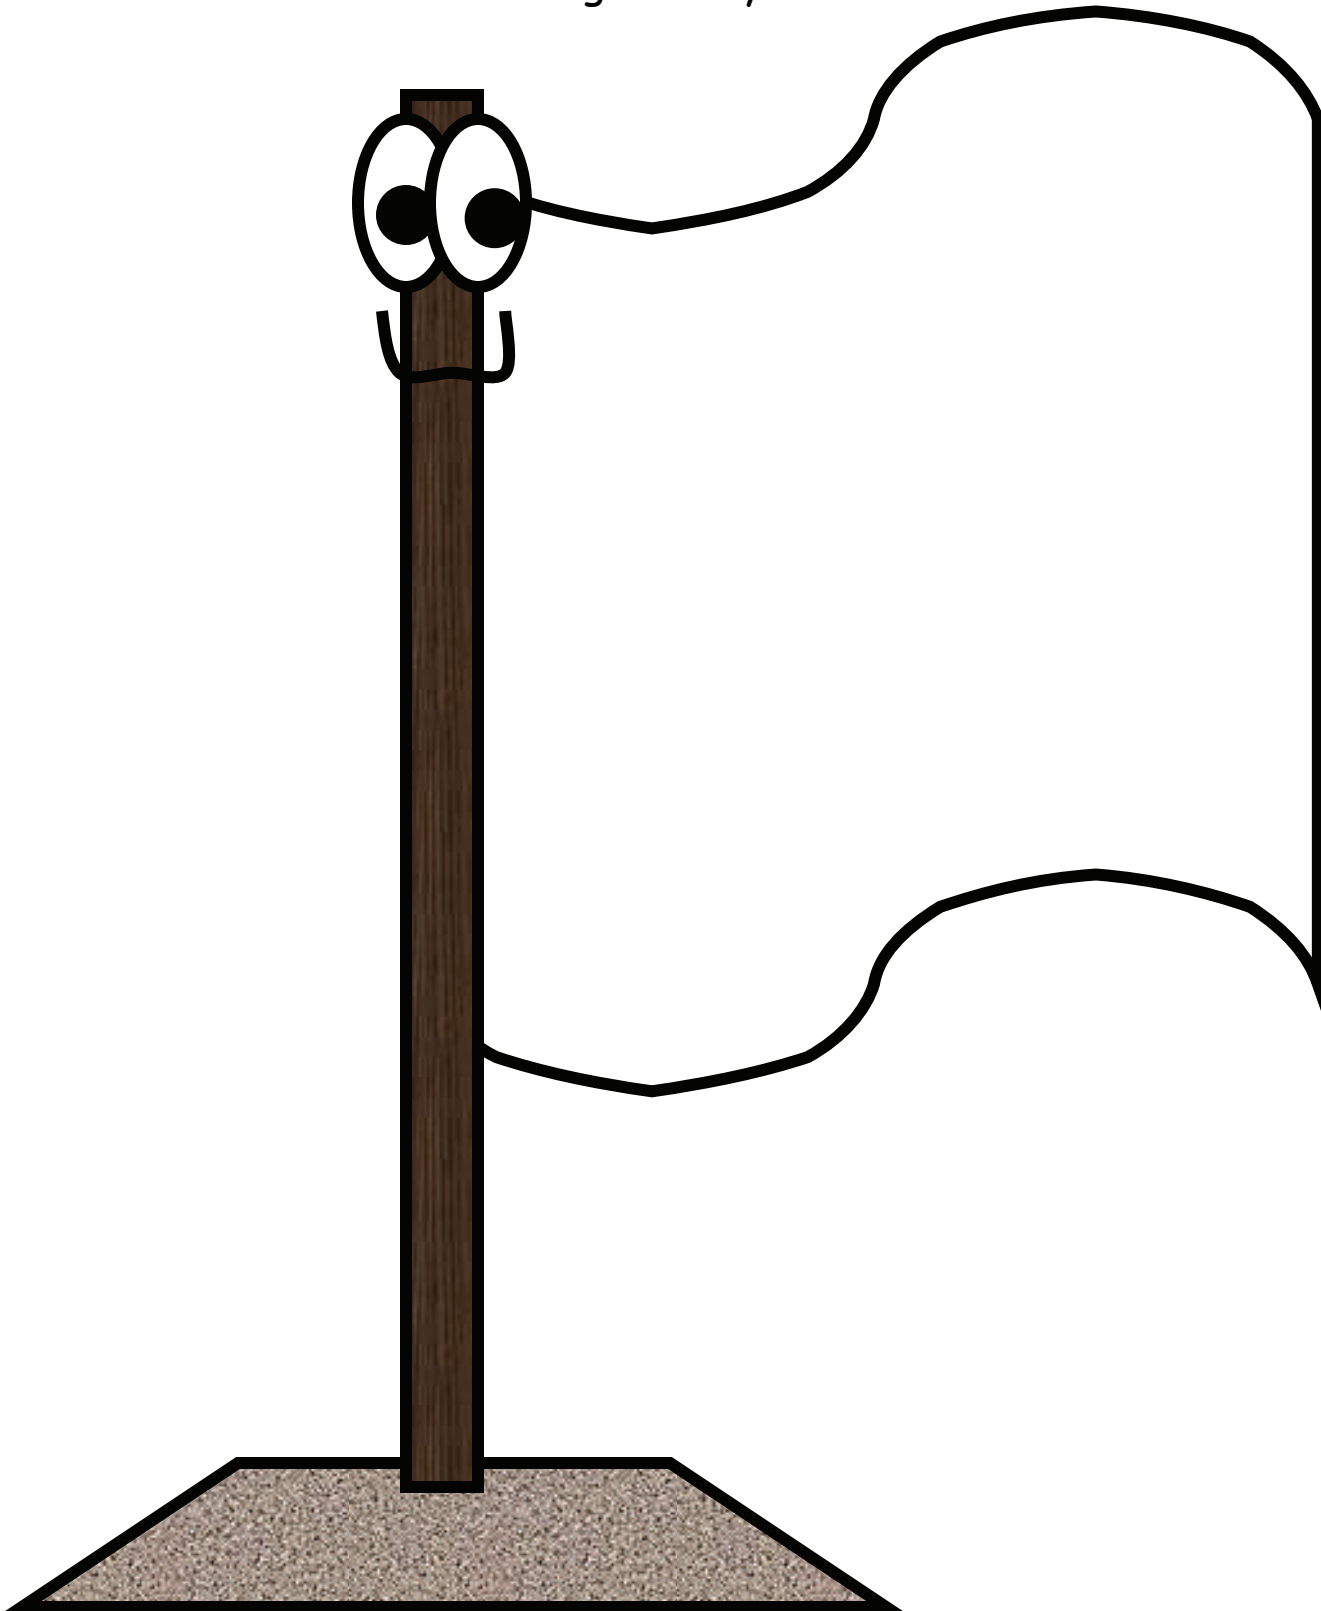

Use him
as a sword.

Green Hat Thinking: A creative use of the story!

Stick Man is a flag pole.

Stick Man was made into a flag. If you were making him into a flag pole, what flag would you make him wear?

Visit <http://www.Free-Guided-Reading.com> for more Thinking Hat resources!

Green Hat Thinking: A creative use of the story!

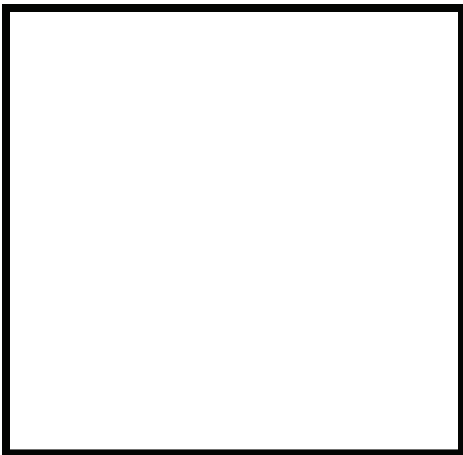

Stick Man decides to leave his tree again...

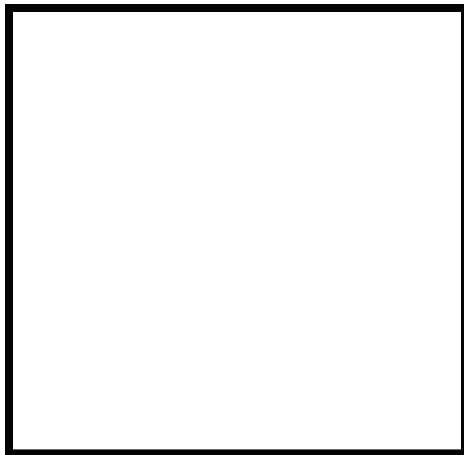

Stick Man needs to go for his daily jog. This is the start of another adventure. Draw and write what happens in the next Stick Man story.

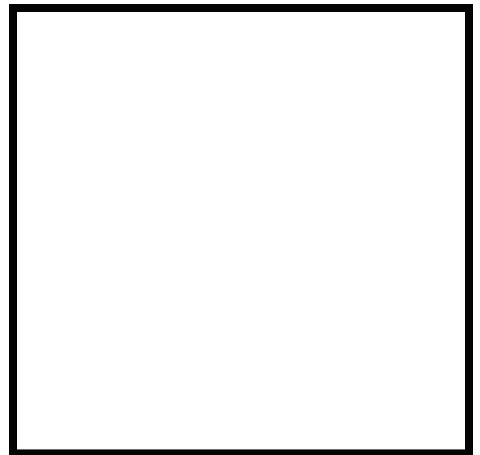

Blue hat: Thinking about Thinking.

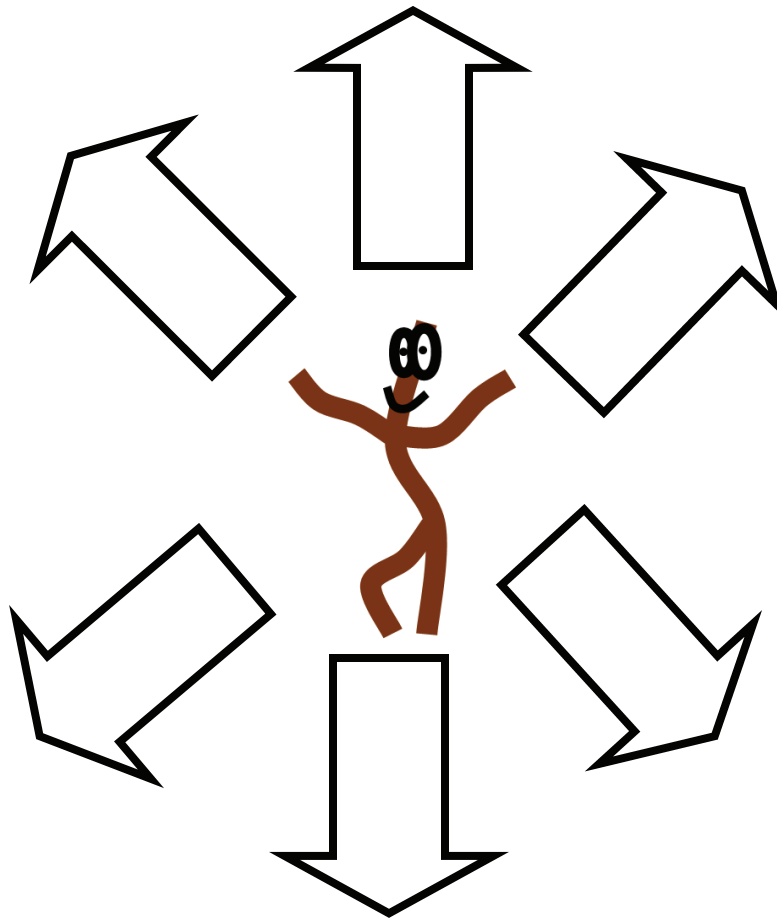

Mind Map For "Stick Man"

Draw a Stick Man mind map below.

My Book Review

My Feelings

My Creative

Positive Points

Negative Points

Facts and information

Visit <http://www.Free-Guided-Reading.com> for more Thinking Hat resources!