

A 3x6 grid of 18 young boys with short brown hair, all wearing white t-shirts. Each boy displays a different facial expression, ranging from neutral and happy to surprised, sad, and angry. The expressions are arranged in three rows: the top row shows neutral, slightly smiling, and laughing faces; the middle row shows surprised, neutral, and sad faces; and the bottom row shows sad, neutral, and angry faces. The text 'How are you feeling today?' is overlaid in the center in a large, purple, cursive font.
