

Latin Questions

- 1) a.m. - We use this today when telling the time. It is short for ante meridiem, but what does it mean?
- 2) p.m. - We also use this when telling the time. It is short for post meridiem. What does it mean?
- 3) Caesar once said "veni, vidi, vici". What does it mean?
- 4) One famous Latin phrase is "cogito ergo sum". What does it mean?
- 5) If a schoolmaster said "tace" to you, what does he mean?
- 6) What is the Latin name for a circle?
- 7) What is the Latin name for the sea?
- 8) If a Roman person said to you "Marcus est in horto", where could you find Marcus?
- 9) If a schoolmaster wrote "bonus" on your work, would your work be good or bad?
- 10) Write the Latin names for two different animals.
- 11) Translate the following sentences:
  - sum sanus
  - sum solus
  - vidi aquam in horto
  - vidi Marcum in urbe
- 12) Translate the following sentences into Latin:
  - I am great
  - I conquered the world