

Mathematical Maze

Instructions:

Roll a die for your starting number. Find your way around the maze making the calculations as you go. You may not cross the same path twice! If you get a calculation wrong, it's the end of your turn but if you reach the end with no mistakes, your team scores the result of your calculations, so choose your route wisely!